CLASS HISTORY

In 1952, three bands of small pilgrims were herded into rooms at South Main Street and Mechanic Street Schools. None of us realized that from that moment on until a long twelve years later, we would spend 2,160 days together.

During our grammar school years we spent many happy days learning our A,B,C's. In the first grade, we learned how to sing patriotic songs, and one of our more frightened pilgrims spent some time under the teacher's desk. In the second grade, as well as the third, spelling bees became the "last word." These spelling bees were taken quite seriously by some. One day, a loss for Miss Makepeace's room drove Jim Toner to tears. In the fourth grade, after half a year, we were transferred to the new school.

After this half year of contentment, we were sent to Mechanic Street School. Here, as always, we were divided into two groups. John "Hubscrub" Morrell and Miss Walinski made friends from the first. In class, phonics was drilled into our heads.

In sixth grade, we were again divided into two groups. Some of us stayed at Mechanic Street, while others went to South Main Street School. Those of us who were sent to South Main Street met the unforgettable Mr. Nell, from whom we learned a great deal on the subject of military tactics. The slightest whisper of war would set him reminiscing about the "good old days." But he was a great disciplinarian and his favorite punishment came in the form of the recalcitrant student's copying pages directly from the encyclopedia. Jane Corbin did a great amount of writing that year.

During seventh grade, we were divided into two rooms. This year we had memorable experiences in math class. One day a firecracker was mysteriously set off there.

Miss Jones seemed to think that David Bren had been responsible. Unfortunately, so did Mr. Graham. This same year, we became great singers, and some of us joined the Junior Band. As eighth graders, we took trips to Bradley Field, Boston, Sturbridge Village, and Crystal Lake. Marilyn Hobson joined us this year. We were still singing along with Mr. Fishman. Butch Guilmette was learning the fundamentals of effective trumpet playing. At the end of this year, Linda Watson and Howard Guilmette were presented the scholarship and citizenship awards.

In 1960 we became freshmen, and were, at first, a bit apprehensive. At the Freshman Reception, our "Bouncing Bunnies," and the "Home on the Rangers," led by "Tex" Purrington, were the center of attention. We elected Linda Watson president. We presented our Senior Reception, "Orchids to You." As sophomores, we again elected Linda Watson president. Eve Scantleberry and Shiela Gelinas joined us this year. We presented our Sophomore Hop, "Frosty Twilight." Bill Sanzo was the star of the annual senior class play, "Clarence." Some of us joined the French Club, and we literally became salesmen. The first Latin Club was formed with John Huse as president. In the spring, a bona fide Latin banquet was held. This year, we learned about the evils of chewing gum in Mrs. Harrington's French and geography classes. As juniors, we elected Jane Corbin president. The training in salesmanship experienced the year before helped us earn money for the French Club's trip to Canada, which proved to be a most unforgettable experience. We presented our Junior Prom, "Around the World," over which Eve Scantleberry reigned as queen. We presented our one-act play, "Nobody Sleeps," and to our and Mr. Martin's surprise, we won the contest. "Spike" Toner, Susan Curtis, "Mara" Coleman, Shiela Gelinas and Sue Hingley were absolutely amazed, but extremely pleased.

Now we are seniors and about to end these wonderful years of our lives. We leave, eager for the future, but we will never forget the memories the past has provided.

SOCCER

In compiling the best record for a Monson High School soccer team since 1960, the 1963 squad, which had originally been expected to finish low in the Pioneer Valley Soccer League, can be credited with a successful season. The team won eight, lost four, and tied two in league play. The zenith of the season came in a game played with Ludlow on Ludlow's new athletic field. Playing an almost entirely defensive game, the Mustangs came up with a scoreless tie against the team which was ultimately to become the state champion.

Coach Tony Costa, in his first year as varsity soccer coach, worked tirelessly to give Monson a winning team. He was ably assisted by Assistant Coach Dave Conant. The fans, led by the cheerleaders and band, were enthusiastic.

Seniors on the squad were: Co-Captains Jamie Newland and John Huse, Johnny Morrell, Jim Toner, Terry Heintz, Bernie Carrigan, and Sparky Alden.

The success of the team is made apparent by the fact that the Mustangs scored twenty-two goals; only eleven were scored against them. In the annual alumni game, the "tired old men" were defeated, three to one.

Three Monson players, Johnny Morrell, a fullback; Jim Toner, the goalie; and Ron Constantino, the team's eighteen-goal-scoring centerforward, were honored by being elected to the all-star team.

Co-Captain Jamie Newland was elected to the second team despite the fact that he missed nearly half the season because of injury.

Special thanks are in order for Mr. Kane, Mr. Proch, and all the other faculty members who turned out so faithfully for the games. The seniors on the squad would like to extend their appreciation to Mr. Henry Cady, who is perhaps Monson High School's most ardent fan.
